

Chargers capture Wallace Memorial Game, 64-57

Carbondale Area (3-1) produced a 10-point lead in the third quarter as the Chargers defeated a scrappy Elk Lake (0-1) 64-57 in the annual Mike "Red" Wallace Memorial game.

The Chargers, who will enjoy a height advantage over most of their opposition this season, hit the boards early for a seven-point margin in the first quarter but could not pull away from the ever-bustling Warriors.

With the game tied at 6-6, Tom Kermeschak made one charity loss and followed with a lay-up off a perfect Brian Petrucci outlet pass for a 9-6 Charger lead. The locals stretched the lead to 18-6 and completed the first quarter with a 19-13 margin.

A Tim Turano foul shot and a Kermeschak steal and score upped the count to 22-13 with 10:10 left in the half. Elk Lake, led by the inside play of Jimmie Greenwood and the acrobatic inside play of John Tewksbury and Doug Metzman closed the gap to 24-21 with 3:40 left in the second quarter.

Following a 32-27 Chargers halftime lead, the Warriors scored the first game's opening seconds. The warriors increased their margin to 28-24 and led 45-40 with 1:58 left in the third quarter. At this point, the Chargers reeled off eight straight points. Pete Turano scored on a nifty reverse lay-up, and Bill Owens hit an inside deuce. Andy Jelsa followed with a lay-up. The Chargers' lead now stood at 54-30. Turano accounted for the Chargers' next seven points for a 61-35 advantage.

At the outset of the final quarter, the Chargers' lead now stood at 64-30. Turano accounted for the Chargers' next seven points for a 61-35 advantage.

Game Notes... Turano (CA) and Greenwood (EL) were selected respective team MVP's. Turano led while Petrucci added 10 points. Greenwood topped the Warriors with 10 points. Kermeschak played the game during his court action. Edger "Special Delivery" Jones (CA) and Kim Boyanowski (EL) were chosen top cheerleaders of the respective schools.

Cam Fella, that firey-throughout the year. The "Pacing Machine" has been voted the Harmsen Horse of the Year 1983, some of the finest warm-water fishing found in the state has been awarded eastern United States.

Cam Fella is the first horse to repeat as Harmsen Horse of the year since Natuson won back-to-back titles in 1979 and 1980. Cam became only the eighth horse to wear the crown more than one season.

The four-year-old horse received 161 of the 283 votes cast in the balloting by the U.S. Trotting Association and the U.S. Harness Writers Association. Ralph Hanover, a three-year-old colt, ranked second with 90 votes.

Coming off a tremendous race campaign, Cam Fella was expected to dominate the aged pacing ranks this year. Questions were raised when he lost his first three starts, but Cam Fella water gamish stocked in silvered all of his first three starts.

In addition, a wide variety of panfish of a wide variety and 71,962,000 orange fish were distributed by the Pennsylvania Fish Commission.

Cam Fella won his 25th straight race on November 19 at Roosevelt Raceway, breaking the modern-day single-season record set by Bred Hanover in 1964. This win gave him a total of 25 two-minute victories this year, which is another single-season record, surpassing the mark of 23 set by Courageous Red in 1982.

Trained and driven all of his starts the last two years by Pat Crowe, Cam Fella has outings scheduled for November 28 at Maywood Park, December 3 at Pompano Park, and December 10 at Greenwood Raceway.

Seven of Cam's victories came in $100,000 events, including two legs of the World Cup, and the finals of the Graduate, Driscoll, and Prager Series.

These wins have enabled the son of Most Happy Fella to become the first standardbred over three-year-old to earn greater than $1 million in a single season. Cam Fella would retire as the richest pacer of all-time, passing Hambling Willie's total of $2,208,219.

Cam Fella was bred by Wilfred Cameron of Washington, Pennsylvania. The colt was sold at the 1980 Tattersalls Yearling Sale at Lexington, Kentucky for $100,000.

Norman Clements of Willowdale, Ontario and Norman Faulkner of Stouffville, Ontario purchased Cam Fella for more the $100,000 after his two-year-old campaign. They were richly rewarded when the colt won two legs of the Pacing Triple Crown and more than $2,000,000 in 1982.

It has been labeled the "great white fleet" by some-those attracted trucks traversing the highways of Pennsylvania-and is understandably associated by most to the trout stocking program of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission.

When stocking trout, every Commission truck is needed to carry the nearly 5 million legal sized trout to the state's approved trout waters. At that time of year the fleet is highly visible. Certainly the trout stocking program is one of the better trout achievements of the Commission.

But the great fleet continues to haul fish to waters
